

Indiana's "No Call" has given me increased privacy and increased quality time at home. Unwanted solicitation calls have dropped to almost nil .. rarely receive any unwanted calls. Therefore, I strongly support Indiana maintaining its current program and not have its powers lessened through a bill that would allow solicitors loopholes in the law that would once again interfere in my quality time at home.